Required Texts: Introduction to Poetry (Eds. Kennedy/Gioia); Early Autumn (Robert B. Parker), Family Honor (Robert B. Parker), Kitchen (Banana Yoshimoto), The Short Story (Ed. Hawley), Antigone (Sophocles), Texts on E-Reserve, Handouts, and Assignments sent via E-mail

Objectives: This course is designed to introduce you to reading and writing about literature. You will learn terms and concepts that will help you understand and interpret poetry and fiction, and you will practice using those terms and concepts in formal writing assignments.

Attendance: You will be allowed a maximum of three absences. Your final grade will drop one-third of a letter for each absence after the third. I do not distinguish between excused and unexcused absences. Tardiness will also affect your grade. If you are consistently late for class, your tardiness will be counted as an absence, and your grade will drop accordingly.

Deadlines for Assignments: I do not accept late papers. Papers must be turned in during class on the due date. Given that there are sometimes emergencies, I will accept one late assignment (except the Research Paper) during the course of the term. I would not advise using this allowance unless absolutely necessary. The late assignment will be graded down one letter grade for each day it is late. I will accept no work after the last day of class.

Plagiarism: All work submitted in this course must be your own and be written exclusively for this course. The use of sources (ideas, quotations, paraphrases) must be properly documented. Please see me if you have any questions about your use of sources. Your name on any assignment submitted in this class indicates that you abide by the Oxford College Honor Code, that you have neither given nor received unauthorized information on the work, and that the work is totally your own and has been written exclusively for this course. It is your responsibility to understand the Honor Code. You can read the Honor Code information in the Oxford College Catalog.

Requirements:
- Close reading of the literature
- Research Paper
- Class participation
- Mid-term and Final Exams
- Six Essays
- Quizzes

Quizzes: Quizzes will be based primarily on the assigned reading; however, some questions on previous lectures and class discussions should be expected. The quizzes will be given in the first five minutes of each class; they cannot be taken after those first five minutes, and there will be no make-up quizzes.

Essays: These typed assignments must be on the literature assigned for that day. You should have a clear argument articulated in a thesis, organized logically, and well-supported with specific references to the texts. You should spend only one to two sentences summarizing the text, one to two sentences explaining what you plan to argue, and the rest of the paper making a short concise critical analysis of the text. These are designed to make writing the larger paper easier and more familiar.

Grading Criteria: Generally, your writing will be evaluated according to the development of ideas, adherence to structure, sentence style and diction, grammar, usage, spelling, and minor punctuation, in that order. See the handout on Guidelines for Essays.

I do not use the +/- system for final grades. The final grades will be based on the following percentages:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Six Essays (5% each)</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Research Paper</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Quizzes</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mid-Term and Final Exams (15% each)</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Other Things To Know:
I do not allow cell phones in class. Make sure your phone is turned off or that you leave it at home.

If I am late and there is no notice on the door, you should wait fifteen minutes before leaving. Prepare the next day’s assignments for the next meeting.

Throw nothing away.
