COURSE OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the basic concepts of politics and to develop their abilities to communicate knowledge of the subject matter through written and oral English. The development of the student’s ability to communicate social and political ideas through the use of written English is an integral part of the course, and all students will be required to demonstrate their proficiency through in class written assignments. During the course of the semester we shall examine writings of some of the great minds of Western civilization as they relate to the fundamental issues of politics. We shall examine these writings with a critical eye to attempt to understand that which they share in common and that on which they differ. At the least we shall attempt to come to grips with the fundamental questions of political thought and political life. Ultimately, we shall attempt to grasp the answers, if any, given to these fundamental questions in the works we study.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

There will be two announced in-class tests during the course of the semester. These tests will be given during regular class periods and will count for a total of 40% of the student's final grade. Any unexcused absence from a quiz or test will result in a grade of zero for that test. The scheduled dates for these tests are October 5 and November 9. A comprehensive final examination is scheduled for 9:00-12:00 a.m. on December 11, 2009 The final exam will count for 25% of the student's final grade. In addition, there will be not fewer than six unannounced quizzes given during the course of the semester. The average of these quiz grades will count for 20% of the student's final grade. These quizzes may be given on any scheduled class day. The remaining 15% of the student's final grade will be based upon the quality of that student's participation in class, especially the group presentations on the New York Times. All examinations, tests, and quizzes are cumulative.
PERSONAL COMMUNICATION DEVICES AND OTHER SOURCES OF CLASS DISTURBANCE

Cell phones, pagers, and beepers are not permitted in my classroom unless they are completely turned off! In the event that any personal communication device or other device causes a disturbance by making its presence known (audibly or otherwise), the possessor of the device may be asked to leave the room immediately.

MAKE-UP WORK:

An unexcused absence from any quiz, test or examination will result in the grade of zero for that quiz, test or examination.

ATTENDANCE:

Students are expected to attend class on a regular basis. Students are also expected to arrive for class on time. Students who are not in class are unable to participate in discussion and take quizzes. In addition, students who miss more than three classes will lose the benefit of the doubt in the calculation of his or her final grade.

HONOR CODE:

It is assumed that all students are aware of the Honor Code (See pages 103-106 of the 2008-2009 Catalog of Oxford College). The Honor Code is always in force! Read it and be familiar with it. When in doubt, ask first!

ASSIGNMENTS:

A tentative outline of the class schedule for the entire semester is attached. Unless otherwise notified in class, students should complete the reading assignments for each chapter by the first day scheduled for discussion of that chapter on the outline. The reading assignments listed below may be modified from time to time or supplemented with additional photocopied case materials supplied in class.

GRADES:

Oxford College's Optional Plus-Minus Grading Scale (as described on pages 87-88 of the Catalog 2009-2010 of Oxford College) will be used in determining grades for this class.

THE COURSE SYLLABUS PROVIDES A GENERAL PLAN FOR THE COURSE; DEVIATIONS MAY BE NECESSARY.
