Course Objectives:
This course will introduce you to the basic concepts of sociology. By the end of the course each student will be able to demonstrate familiarity with:

- The meaning of a “sociological imagination”
- The elements of social structure and how these elements interact to create society
- The four main sociological “perspectives” – functionalism, conflict theory, symbolic interactionism, and the feminist perspective
- The social construction of concepts such as race and gender, and the effect of these concepts on U.S. society
- The meaning and function of social institutions, (such as family, religion, education) in society
- The sociological significance of our institution’s history and present, both Oxford College and Emory University
- The relationship of social stratification to individual life change
- The dilemmas of the working poor in current society
- The significance and dynamics of social movement activism in society

Required Texts:
- Soc by Jon Witt
- The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down by Anne Fadiman
- Additional readings on electronic reserve through the library

Academic Honesty:
Both Oxford College and I take the matter of academic honesty very seriously. I would like to remind you that you are required to follow the Honor Code. Any suspected breaches to the Honor Code will be referred to the Honor Council for review and possible disciplinary action. This includes acts of plagiarism. I have found in the past that many college students do not understand what does and does not constitute plagiarism. We will be discussing proper citation methods later in the semester.

Exams:
Each exam will include definitions, short answers, and at least one essay. The third (final) exam will be cumulative. I will distribute a review sheet at least two days before each exam.

Please note: if you miss an exam due to unexpected circumstances, you MUST contact me within 24 hours of the exam period, or you will not be able to make up the exam. Missed exams can only be made up in extreme situations, i.e. hospitalization or death of a family member. If you are ill at a scheduled exam period, you are expected to take the exam anyway. If you are severely ill, you must contact me BEFORE the exam for permission to reschedule.

Attendance:
I will be taking attendance each day. Each student is allowed TWO absences during the semester. This is to allow for the occasional illness, personal matter, or accidental nap.

Each additional absence will result in a 1 point lose to your attendance and participation grade (out of 15 points). There are only two exceptions to this policy: 1) absences for religious holidays if you notify me at least 24 hours ahead of time that you will be absent, and 2) extreme unexpected situations (extended illnesses, death in the family, etc.). If you have an extreme situation that prevents you from attending class, please notify me as soon as possible, and be prepared to show documentation of the situation.

Participation:
Your active participation is a vital part of this course. You are expected to have carefully read the assigned materials before each class session, and come prepared for discussion. I believe strongly that you can each learn a great deal in the classroom from your fellow students, not just from your professor. We are all both learners and teachers. You share with me the responsibility of creating a classroom atmosphere in which all of your classmates feel comfortable expressing their individual questions, ideas, and opinions. Students with perfect attendance who remain silent in the classroom will receive a B- for their attendance and participation grade.

Quizzes:
You will be quizzed weekly on the readings. These reading quizzes will ask questions which are obvious and simple to answer if you have done the readings, and otherwise impossible. The day of the week of the quizzes will vary, so there is a ‘pop’ nature to them. Your first quiz will include the syllabus itself! At the end of the semester, I will count your 10 highest quiz grades. If you are absent from or LATE TO class, you will not be able to make up the day’s quiz.

Term Paper:
The term paper, due, is a 5-6 page paper will be worth 15% of your final grade. For this paper you will discuss how the building blocks of social structure differ within Hmong and American culture… and how the clash between the social structures of these two cultures shapes the life and story of Lia Lee. For this paper you will use ONLY resources from within class, primary The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down. I will discuss requirements for the paper with you in detail later in the semester.

Grading:
Please note that I WILL be grading using the plus-minus system.

Many students worry about professors’ subjectivity in grading. Please remember: I NEVER give grades, students earn their grades, irrespective of how I feel about them as individual people. The key to an A in this course is hard work and comprehension of sociology, not the ‘correct opinion’ or being buddies with Dr Singer.
